

Mexican Comedy Given By Students

The Mexican comedy, "Sunday Costs Five Pesos" by Josephine Niggli, was presented by the Miami Playmakers as the program for the fine arts group of Miami A. A. U. W. branch Monday in University of Miami theater.

Following the production, staged by students under the supervision of Aniver Sari Sackheim, Prof. Fred Koch, Jr., of the university drama department, stressed the need for arts in "a war world." He also explained student participation in drama.
