The Little Hours

CultureHub and La MaMa present The Little Hours produced in association with Theater in Quarantine.

La MaMa and CultureHub present a new work by Theatre in Quarantine. The Little Hours is a livestreamed play-installation by Caridad Svich about two poet friends as they navigate their lives. An investigation of faith, love, and grace, amidst scattered snapshots of an old artist-bohemian New York that may never return. We wait and dream in the little hours for a radical utopia, even while the world crumbles.

The Little Hours is developed in CultureHub and La MaMa's Experiments in Digital Storytelling Program, which incubates story-driven artworks that harness digital distribution platforms, expand online audience engagement, and push the boundaries of current artistic forms.
